

MEGAN RIBLE

DIGITAL VFX ARTIST

PROFILE

---

Recent graduate with a well-rounded artistic and technical background, specializing in rotoscope, digital paint, and effects animation.

SKILLS

---

ART & VFX COURSEWORK

Roto, Compositing, Particle Effects, Digital Paint, Digital Matte Painting, 3D Modeling, 2D & 3D Animation, Photography, Editing, Figure Drawing

APPLICATIONS

Photoshop, Maya, After Effects, Comotion, Flash, Final Cut Pro, Premiere, Photo Paint, Dreamweaver, MS Office

PROGRAMMING

MEL, Java, C, HTML, JavaScript, JSP, SQL, XML, PHP, Perl, Python

EDUCATION

---

Academy of Art University, San Francisco, CA
B.F.A. Computer Arts: 3D Visual Effects

January 2003 – May 2005

Stanford University, Stanford, CA
B.S. Computer Science, Minor: English Literature
▪ President's Scholar Award

September 1998 – June 2002

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Stanford Residential Computing, Stanford, CA
Software Developer

June 2001 – August 2005

- Designed layout and graphics for several online systems.
- Go-to girl for the student IP-request system, a Java servlet-based internet system allowing students and administrators to request and update Stanford network connections.
- Automated the entire system, fixed bugs, added faster search functions and database queries, ported from Sybase to Oracle, and switched from integrated HTML to JSP.
- Various other jobs using Java, JSP, HTML, Javascript, and SQL as needed.

NASA Ames Research Center, Moffett Field, CA
Assistant Coordinator of SHARP

June 2000 – September 2000

- Helped to run the Summer High School Apprenticeship Research Program (SHARP), a program for minority high school students to work with NASA researchers for a summer.
- Communicated with students and NASA employees, led workshops, wrote evaluations, and performed various administrative duties.

Borders Books, Music, and Café, San Mateo, CA
Clerk

June 1999 – January 2000

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

---

- SIGGRAPH (student member, 2003 – current)
- Society of Women Engineers (student member, 1999 – 2002)

PORTFOLIO/REFERENCES

---

- Portfolio available at <http://www.megcatscorner.com>
- References and reel available upon request